

On behalf of more than five-hundred Mohawk employees and associates, I would like to welcome you to our family of products. For more than fifty years, Mohawk has been the product of choice for institutional, commercial, and architectural wood doors. We pride ourselves on providing more than just a premium quality door; we strive to offer an open hand to support every one of your service requirements. Mohawk markets its products to the industry through a network of more than ninety field sales representatives and an exceptional inside support staff to follow through with the most demanding job requirements.

When considering Mohawk as a supplier for your 5-Ply, 7-Ply, or Stile and Rail door requirements, you can proceed with confidence knowing that you have selected the industry leader. With two manufacturing facilities located in Northumberland, Pennsylvania, and South Bend, Indiana, we operate over 400,000 square feet of production area. All Mohawk architectural-grade doors meet and/or exceed the AWI 1300 and 1400 standards, as well as WDMA I.S.1-A. As a division of Premdor, one of the world's largest door manufacturers, Mohawk has benefitted by Premdor's commitment to vertically integrate the majority of our raw materials. This affords us the opportunity to stay on the cutting edge of manufacturing technologies, cost competitiveness, and inventory management. With every new product offering, with every additional service, and with every new acquisition, we remain focused on one sole mission...Complete Customer Satisfaction!

We welcome your patronage and sincerely appreciate your consideration of Mohawk Flush Doors, Inc.

Respectfully yours,
Mohawk Flush Doors, Inc.

Barry T. Shovlin
Vice President Sales and Marketing
